F056670 In re A.E., a Person Coming Under the Juvenile Court Law

Defendant's contentions as to the denial of his suppression motion and the determination of his offenses as felonies are without merit. However, the juvenile court's jurisdiction and disposition orders are reversed for the reasons set forth ante as to the deferred entry of judgment issue. The matter is remanded to the juvenile court for exercise of its discretion to determine, in view of the requirements set forth in Welfare and Institutions Code section 790 et seq. and California Rules of Court, rule 5.800, whether appellant should be granted deferred entry of judgment, provided appellant admits the allegations of the petition. Should appellant not admit the petitions allegations, or should the juvenile court, in its discretion, determine that deferred entry of judgment should not be granted, the court's jurisdictions and disposition orders are to be reinstated. Poochigian, J.

We concur: Dawson, Acting P.J.; Hill, J.
